

CIBC BALANCED ASSET 10 INDEX™

BLOOMBERG TICKER: CIBQB10E

Tap into a strategic mix of assets and features to reach your short- and long-term investment goals

Introducing the CIBC Balanced Asset 10 Index™ from CIBC Capital Markets, a leading North American financial institution at the forefront of index construction.

By leveraging a classic 60/40 approach to portfolio allocation in combination with rebalancing and volatility control features, the CIBC Balanced Asset 10 Index™ seeks to provide excess returns across market conditions through a tactical combination of equity and fixed income ETFs developed by BlackRock.

Through the 60% equity ETF exposure, the Index targets consistent returns over time and across market conditions, while the 40% fixed income ETF allocation seeks to moderate the overall risk of the portfolio.

Key features:

The CIBC Balanced Asset 10 Index™. A distinct mix of assets and construction features seeking to generate excess returns while effectively managing risk.

Approach

1. Evaluate

The Index is comprised of specific BlackRock ETFs to obtain distinct market exposure:

- BlackRock iShares Core S&P 500 ETF (IVV)
- BlackRock iShares 20+ Year Treasury Bond ETF (TLT)

The Index portfolio is constructed using the 60 / 40 allocation to IVV and TLT respectively.

2. Rebalance

Each month the Index is rebalanced back to 60 / 40 weights.

3. Volatility control

Index volatility is managed at 10% using custom volatility control strategies, which shift a percentage of assets into cash as required, capping leverage at 150%.

Risks & warnings

The risk factors are not complete and you should read the risk factors contained in any final offering document prior to investing in any products linked to this Index. This is provided for information purposes only and does not purport to summarize or contain all of the provisions that would be set forth in a final offering document.

- Neither the CIBC Balanced Asset 10 Index™ (the “Index”) nor any of the assets comprising the Index are guaranteed to yield specific results. There can be no assurance that the Index will be successful. Past performance is not indicative of future results.
- The Index is comprised of notional assets. The exposure to the underlying Index that tracks the total return of the underlying assets is purely notional. There is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership interest.
- Changes in the value of the underlying ETFs may offset each other and thus act to reduce the level of the Index below what it would have achieved if the poorer performing ETFs were not included.
- Prior to investing in the Index or purchasing any products linked to (or based on) the Index, investors and consumers should seek independent investment, financial, business, legal, regulatory, tax or accounting advice.
- In calculating the performance of the Index, CIBC deducts a maintenance fee, calculated on a daily basis. This fee will reduce the potential positive change in the Index, and increase the potential negative change in the Index.
- Certain extraordinary and disruption events may impact the calculation of the Index.
- The Index lacks substantial operating history and, as it is based on complex algorithms, may perform in unanticipated ways. Neither this document nor the issuance of any investment product with returns linked to the Index should be deemed as investment advice or as an assurance or guarantee by CIBC or any of their respective affiliates that an investment linked to the Index will generate a positive return.
- The Index was launched on August 1, 2019. Therefore, all data for the Index prior to launch date represents the application of the index methodology by CIBC in order to reconstruct hypothetical historical data. This back-tested, hypothetical, historical data has inherent limitations and is provided for illustrative purposes only. Results during these periods may have been different (perhaps considerably) had the Index actually been in existence. Unlike actual performance records, hypothetical or simulated performances, returns or scenarios may not necessarily reflect certain market factors such as liquidity constraints.
- The Index performance reflects the price evolution of the ETFs composing the Index, including any dividend payment occurring while a given ETF is part of the index.
- The roles of the different teams involved within CIBC in the design, maintenance or replication of the Index have been strictly defined. Where CIBC holds a product having the Index as its underlying and other positions exposing it to the Index for its own account, the replication of the Index is made in the same manner by a single team within CIBC, be it for the purpose of hedging the product held by external investors and consumers or for the purpose of the positions held by CIBC acting for its own account. CIBC may take positions in the market of the financial instruments or of other assets involved in the composition of the Index, including as liquidity provider.
- Publicly available information on the Index and its methodology is limited.

In calculating the level of the Index, the index methodology deducts a maintenance fee of 0.85% per annum, calculated daily. Furthermore, while the volatility control applied by CIBC as part of the index methodology may result in less fluctuation in rates of return as compared to indices without volatility controls, it may also reduce the overall rate of return for Products referencing the Index as compared to other indices not subject to volatility controls.
